

“Volunteers do not necessarily have the time; they have the heart.”

— Elizabeth Andrew

Honor the past, shape the future, and contribute to your community.

Become a Cemetery Volunteer

The Division of Cemeteries proudly supports a rich history of cemeteries, regulating approximately 1,700 of the state's 6,000 cemeteries. These cemeteries are all public not-for-profit corporations.

Most of our cemeteries are small and rely on the dedication of volunteer boards. Volunteers provide essential support and resources to ensure these cherished spaces remain vibrant and well-maintained, honoring the legacy of those who have come before us.

Volunteer and join us in our mission to keep New York's cemeteries thriving now and for future generations.
